10. Duration of Meetings

- 10.1 At all committee meetings, subject to 10.2 below, at 10.00pm no further items of business will be conducted save for the conclusion of the item of business under discussion and that the meeting be adjourned to another date if there are outstanding items.

- 12A.1 Unless this Constitution provides otherwise, any matter will be decided by a simple majority of those members voting and present in the room at the time the question was put.
- 12A.2 If there are equal numbers of votes for and against, the Chairman will have a second or casting vote.
- (a) If the Chairman fails to vote when the main vote is taken, an equality of a vote cannot be achieved by the Chairman casting an original vote and following that action with a casting vote. The Chairman's casting vote may be used whether or not the Chairman has already voted.
- (b) with the exception of (c) below, in the event of a tied vote, the proposer of the matter under debate shall have the opportunity of making a further speech of no more than 3 minutes. A further vote will then immediately be taken. If deadlock has not been broken, the Chairman must cast a vote in favour of the status quo. The status quo will usually be interpreted as the motion falling.

- 12A.3 The Chairman will take the vote by show of hands, or if there is no dissent, by the affirmation of the meeting.
- 12A.4 If, before the Chairman begins to take a vote, three members present at the meeting demand it, the names for and against the motion or amendment or abstentions from voting will be taken down in writing and entered into the minutes. Each member present will be called by name and asked to indicate whether they are voting in favour of, or against the motion or amendment or abstaining from voting.
